

1. A normal window:

2. An openable window, it has a star dotted line looking like a star

3. A window consisting of several "panes". This window has

4. representing a door which can be slided (type 1)

A frame consisting of several panes, where only some of them have borders. This is

5. A frame looking a bit differently, like this: (type 2)

6. A frame consisting of several panes, with some of the panes having borders, like this: